May 3 – 4, 2013,
Hotel Dubrovnik, Zagreb, Croatia

The World Academy of Art and Science European Leadership Network

Dag Hammarskjöld University College of International Relations and Diplomacy

Co-sponsored by the Croatian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and The Atlantic Council of Croatia

Brief description of the project:

The aim of the conference is to formulate actions to:

- 1) Assure non-proliferation of WMD and their constant reduction,
- 2) Lead toward disarmament also through establishment of NWFZ and WMD Free Zones, and
- 3) Reduce and finally to eliminate violent intra- and inter-state conflicts.

This conference is a continuation of several conferences organized in 2012 (e.g. Pugwash, Astana, Dubrovnik, London and Amman) and the plan of action will be based on many ideas exposed at these conferences. A particular attention is devoted to a unique role of NATO in helping a realization of some of these ideas.
